Sign Permit Application

Entities proposing to erect a sign (for a business or other use) in Taylor must submit the following information and pay a $50 permit fee. No sign permit application will be reviewed until the fee has been paid. This information must be submitted to the Town Clerk who will provide it to the Town Planner.

If the submitted request is part of a site plan approved by the Planning Commission, the Commission must approve the request. In all other instances, Town Planner will review the application and indicate whether the sign is approved or not.

If the Planning Commission does not approve the proposed sign, their decision can be appealed to the Board of Aldermen. If the Town Planner does not approve the requested sign, that decision can be appealed to the Planning Commission.

The following information is required on this form or on a written application.
